

JANET BROXON

Bio

Janet Broxon, who created the Sunflower Fiesta group and the Panzy Pazazz collection, is a native Californian who now lives in Maine. A graduate of the Academy of Art College in San Francisco, she has over 15 years experience as an illustrator and textile designer. She likes to work in a collage of watercolor, pastel and gouache. Her subjects tend toward the whimsical and symbolic, which lend themselves well to many fields. Her work has been seen on package designs, gift and paper products, textiles, advertising, book publishing, magazines and the Web. .
